

Perform at the S.A.M. Convention!

The Society of American Magicians invites young magicians ages seven through 17 to audition for the Stars of Tomorrow show that will take place during the S.A.M. National Convention, June 30-July 3, 2010, at the Hilton Atlanta Hotel in Atlanta Georgia.

The Stars of Tomorrow show is a professional stage show that showcases young magicians and is one of the most popular events at the annual convention.

Each performer will be paid. He or she also will receive two convention registrations (one for the performer, the other for a parent), plus a year's membership in the Society of Young Magicians.

To audition:

- Submit a video or DVD of the act you plan to perform in the show. The act should be five to 10 minutes long and appropriate for stage. The video does not have to be from an actual show or be professionally produced, but it should include the effects, music or patter, costume and props you would use if selected to perform in the show. No pyrotechnics may be used. You may submit more than one act on the video.
- You must include the attached application form, a brief biography and a photo suitable for printing in the convention program.

The S.A.M. also is looking for a young magician to emcee the Stars of Tomorrow Show. Emcee applicants should also include a sample of introductions, jokes, and emcee bits in their audition videos.

The deadline for receiving applications is April 15, 2010.
Materials cannot be returned.
